Oldest Epigram.

An epigram must pass through many hands and get much polishing before it is a perfect jewel. You may remember how Oscar Wilde sent (on the stage) the man of the world through the drawing room door with the epigram. "There is one thing I never could resist; that is temptation." But you may trace it from the Garden of Eden, where the masculine plea for mercy was that the "woman tempted me."

Comparatively Simple.

A clergyman whose patriotism exceeded his powers of oratory was speaking upon his favorite subject.
At last he felt that something great was required of him. He worked himself up to a climax. "Patriotism," he exclaimed, "is the backbone of the British empire, and what we have to do is to train that backbone and bring it to the front."

Advice for the Girls.

After an examination at a training college for women teachers at Arnsberg, Prussia, the examiner, addressing the fifty-six girl candidates, said:
"You have all done very well and passed the examination. Now try to win a husband, which is far better, for the outlook for women teachers is very bad."

Evidently Somewhat Annoyed.

A dispatch from Paterson, N. J., refers to a marriage by the "informal southern ceremony of jumping over a broomstick." There never was any such southern marriage ceremony. Paterson should confine herself to anarchists—a subject with which she is familiar.—Florida Times-Union.

Routine.

Don't be utterly discouraged because you have to do the same job over and over again. Nature has been staging sunsets and sunrises for some eons now—yet we remark no deterioration in their quality from year to year.—Collier's Weekly.

To Clean Picture Frames.

To clean picture frames, put a gill of vinegar into a pint of soda water.
Remove all dust from the frames; dip a large camel's hair brush into the mixture, squeeze it partly dry, then brush the gilt, doing a small portion at a time.

Apple Tree's Large Yield.

The largest apple tree in New York state is said to be one standing near the town of Wilson. It was planted in the year 1815, and it is on record that it once yielded 33 full barrels of apples in a season.

Confession.

Husband (sarcastically)—"Oh, I suppose you never did a foolish thing in your life." Wife (bitterly)—"Oh, yes, I did. I married you."—Baltimore American.

Rough on the Maid.

It is embarrassing when a young lady is in to one young gentleman and out to another, and they happen to call together.—Kansas City Journal.

To Keep Tinware Bright.

If new tinware is rubbed over with fresh lard, then thoroughly heated in the oven before it is used, it will be less liable to rust.

Best Possible Way.

"If," says Deacon W. C. Palmer,
"there is no other way to get your wife to agree with you just admit you're wrong."

To Remove Ink Blots.

Ink blots can be easily removed from books by covering them with salt and rubbing gently with the fingers.

Oregon Led the States.

Oregon was the first state to declare Labor day a holiday. The law was passed in 1887.

Five Minutes.

The reason I beat the Austrians is,
they did not know the value of five minutes.—Napoleon.

First Chimney in History.

The oldest account of a chimney places it in Venice in 1347.

Opportunity is knocking at your door now—the opportunity of having a wholesome, delightful refreshment for every member of the family at so small a cost.

Bad Spells

"I suffered, during girlhood, from womanly weakness," writes Mrs. Mollie Navy, of Walnut, N. C. "At last, I was almost bed-ridden, and had to give up. We had three doctors. All the time, I was getting worse. I had bad spells, that lasted from 7 to 28 days. In one week, after I gave Cardui a trial, I could eat, sleep, and joke, as well as anybody. In 8 weeks, I was well. I had been an invalid for 5 weary years! Cardui relieved me, when everything else failed."

TAKE CARDUI The Woman's Tonic

If you are weak and ailing, think what it would mean, to you, to recover as quickly as Mrs. Navy did. For more than 50 years, this purely vegetable, tonic remedy, for women, has been used by thousands of weak and ailing sufferers.
They found it of real value in relieving their aches and pains. Why suffer longer? A remedy that has relieved and helped so many, is ready, at the nearest drug store, for use, at once, by you. Try it, today.
